

Otters are playful mammals that live in river bank burrows. Their webbed feet and rudder-like tail help them swim both forward and in reverse with amazing speed. Otters often float on their backs when eating. They feed mainly on fish, but will also catch mice and insects.